HEALING FROM DESPAIR

The Talmud says that Moses asked God why there is suffering, and God answered that as long as a person inhabits a physical body, he cannot possibly understand this. Following the revelation at Sinai, the Torah says, “Moses approached the thick cloud where God was.” Rabbi Abraham Twersky teaches that one might think that God’s immanent presence would be in brightness, but Moses knew better. It is in the darkness of life that we may find God.

The loneliness of suffering is accentuated by the feeling that one has been abandoned by God. Rebbe Nachman of Breslov says that when he was in the depth of depression, he focused on the verse in Psalms (139:8), “If I ascend to heaven, You are there; if I make my bed in the lowest depths, behold, You are there.” Rebbe Nachman said, “Indeed, I felt I was in Hell, but God was there with me. I was not alone.”

Or in the words of the Psalms: “God is close to the brokenhearted, and those crushed in spirit, God saves.” (Ps. 34:19).

—Rabbi Daniel Alder

GARDEN OF REMEMBRANCE

(Gan Ha-Zikaron)

The names of departed relatives and friends of the congregation listed on the following pages have been etched into the Wall of the Garden of Remembrance. A separate section of the Wall lists names of relatives lost during the Holocaust, and a handsome bronze marker has been installed near the entrance to indicate the purpose of the Garden.

In addition, a beautiful mosaic has been installed in the Garden to commemorate the victims of the Holocaust and Jewish martyrs of ages past. This was made possible by a generous gift from a member of the congregation.

We urge those who have not yet contributed to this noble project to do so by indicating names to be inscribed on the Wall or by making a gift toward the maintenance and ongoing work on the Garden of Remembrance.

You may inquire at the Synagogue office (212-674-5750) for details of procedures for including the names of those for whom you may wish to establish a permanent memorial.

PSALM 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul;
He guideth me in straight paths for His namesake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil,
For Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine
    enemies;
Thou has anointed my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Amen

Let the name of the Holy One be glorified and exalted, extolled and honored, though He be above all praises and hymns which man can utter. He is our guide in this life, and our hope in the life that is eternal. He will grant peace unto Israel and unto all mankind.

Amen.

EL MOLEY RACHAMIM

“GOD OF COMPASSION”

O merciful God, who dwellest on high and yet art full of compassion, keep in Thy divine presence among the holy and the pure, whose light shineth as the brightness of the firmament, the souls of our dear and beloved who have gone to their eternal home with Thee. O may their souls be bound up in the bond of life, and their memories inspire us to serve Thee, and our fellow man in truth, kindness and peace.

Amen.
